

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday February 9, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Coaches back new state flag

Click here to review details of the statewide survey

Editorials

Don't cave in to economic blackmail as flag vote nears

Miss. flag battle 'hot topic' in Ga.

Legislators, show me the money!

Nothing offensive about rebel flag

Why are Entergy's profits soaring?

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Bill filed to buy railroad to Hattiesburg

Three Ole Miss coaches back new state flag

Senate OKs women's commission in bid to boost status

House approves school money

Sound Off

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Capps' plan to fully fund workforce training

JANE CLARK SUMMERS: House approves bill on newborn congenital disorder

BILL MINOR: Corruption marks history of highway commission

Bandaging the cuts -- Senate moves toward temporary fix for schools

Patients' rights -- Forget the politics; remember the issue

Gene Barton letter

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

House votes to repeal warehouse tax

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Jennings successful in warehouse tax repeal vote; tax repeal could open up new market for DeSoto County

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Schools could lose teachers

Bill to change College Board may die today

Gas companies await payments

Give battle flag its rightful place

America lacks energy policy

Enterprise-journal.com McComb, Mississippi

Boil-water notice issued for eastern Pike County

Editorials for Thursday, Feb. 8, 2001

Bill Minor: House approves highway reforms

Letters to the editor for Thursday, Feb. 8, 2001

stateline.org

North Carolina, Other States Put Brakes On Dereg

Mississippi High Court Panel Asks Judge Be Reprimanded

USA Today

Calif.'s energy shortage fuels political tug of war

Power plants on tap

